A handwritten musical score for string quartet (two violins, viola, cello) on five-line staff paper. The score consists of two systems of music. The first system starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It contains six measures of music with various note heads and stems. The second system begins with a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It contains four measures of music, with the last measure ending on a double bar line. The handwriting is clear and legible.

A horizontal strip of a handwritten musical manuscript. It features a single staff with five horizontal lines. The music consists of various note heads and stems, some with vertical stems pointing up or down, and others with diagonal stems. There are also several short horizontal strokes or dashes above the staff, likely indicating fermatas or specific performance instructions.

١٢

A handwritten musical score page featuring a single system of music. The system begins with a treble clef, followed by a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The music consists of six measures, each starting with a quarter note. Measure 1 contains notes at the top of the staff. Measures 2 through 5 contain notes in the middle of the staff. Measure 6 contains notes at the bottom of the staff. The score is written on five-line staff paper.
